WATERFORD FASHION SHOW RAISES NEARLY $800 FOR SYMPHONY

(VANCOUVER, Wash.) — Waterford at Fairway Village’s wardrobe event raised $770 for the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra. Waterford Executive Director Patrick Bergin presented the check to Symphony Executive Director Jennifer Teisinger during the monthly Resident Council meeting.

The Vancouver Symphony Orchestra is Southwest Washington’s largest professional performing arts organization. Now in its twenty-eighth year, it provides high-quality musical programming and maintains a strong commitment to reaching and serving the community’s youth.

“Waterford is delighted to absorb the costs of this successful event so that all money raised goes directly to support the Symphony,” says Bergin.

The Symphony’s Teisinger said, “We are grateful for the support and enthusiasm the Waterford has for the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra. Organizations like Waterford help us continue to bring great music to Southwest Washington. ”

A capacity crowd of 175 people enjoyed the benefit event, which featured representatives from a nationally known clothier discussing new fashions and offering wardrobe tips. Guests sipped champagne punch and ate finger sandwiches and desserts.

Opened in 1998, Waterford at Fairway Village is home to more than 200 people and is located adjacent to the Fairway Village 55-plus community and public golf course. Waterford offers a variety of single-level homes, apartments and lifestyle options. A health and fitness club is open to anyone over 40 and features a variety of fitness choices.
